Subject: RE: Request for final decision for manuscript number MS: 2013_JSRR_5870

The authors pretty much answered the reviewers' mostly favorable comments. However the English still needs to be improved. I attached a version with a significant number of corrections and changes. Some changes are marked by a comment asking the authors to check if my change reflects their intended meaning. Once the authors submit a manuscript with the changes/corrections incorporated the paper is ready for publication.
