The paper was greatly improved by the authors. In the present format it can be accepted for publication. However, the text and the English have to be carefully revised by the authors. I join some examples: Lines 92-93 the text is written in Portuguese. Change it to English please. Table1: limits of BOD5 in USA the value is missing Line 119: Characters instead of letters? Line 133: were instead of Presented? Line 189mg/l instead of mg/L Line 217: The instead of exists? Lines 246 and 247 the sentence is repeated Line 256: the instead of there? 260: something is wrong with the sentence Table 2: The meaning of the characters a, b, c, d are not fully clear	The changes were made as suggested. In Table 2, data followed with the same characters in the horizontal direction (same line) differ significantly.
