PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	The manuscript describes a method for determining the vitamin B complex of Acacia nilotica, I suggest that, instead of being considered Original Research Article, may be considered as Method Article. The manuscript should be revised in grammar. The scientific name for Acacia nilotica should be italicized or underlined. The authors did not use the format of the Journal. There are serious problems with the references, is not homogeneous format. Revise the title of tables and figures, in some cases are together the words and/or numbers	This work presents an original for the simultaneous extraction and non-sequential vitamins B which is a contribution in the analytical field of pharmaceutical and food control this which explains the award to our article as research article and not method Article Any changes on the bibliography and structure (grammar.) are assigned in the text by highlight.
Minor REVISION comments
Optional/General comments
