PART 2:

FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
Some spelling mistakes have not yet been corrected. Also, paired words have not been separated in the whole text. This mean the authors did not finally agree with the reviewer's suggestions. See lines 2, 3, 6, 36, 39, 60, 94, 99, 108... and so on. Line 30: write "schistosome's" but not "schistosomal". - Figure 1. The authors should indicate the cardinal points on the map; present a legend if applicable; improve the title of the figure. These information allow the better understanding of the map by the reader. - Figure 2. The authors should write <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. "Lymnaea" but not "Limnae"; 2. "Pila"but not "Pilae" 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - All spelling mistakes have been corrected - We have separated all the paired words. We are concerned that some Word compatibility problems in computers we use could be causing pairing of words right from our initial submission. The errors are so obvious and gross that any author who understands the rigour in review process would dare submit such work. If the words combine again, please let us know immediately. - Line 30: schistosomal has been changed to "schistosome's" as corrected. - A key has been provided for Fig.1 for easy understanding and the heading improved. - In Fig.2, the word Limnae has been changed to Lymnaea and Pilae changed to Pila. - Thank you for reducing the error margin of our work.
