PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	This paper addresses an important subject on the relationship between national income and occupational injury. However, the paper has not conducted a thorough analysis of this relationship. The author has not also explained well the significance and motivation of this study. The contribution of the paper to the existing body of knowledge is not very significant. However, the manuscript is scientifically robust and technically sound.
Minor REVISION comments	(a) Other than presenting the data in graphs and tables, the author could perform some statistical analysis (for example, correlation analysis, regression analysis, etc.) to support evidence that there is a significant relationship between safety performance in a society and the level of national income. (b) Though the study by Smith (2011) is listed in the references, it is not cited in the body of the paper. (c) In the Abstract, "seven year range of 2011 through 2007" should be changed to "the seven year range from 2007 through 2011". (d) In Graphs 2 and 3, the variable measured on vertical axis can be expressed in billions of dollars. (e) Scatter plots showing the relationship between the two variables can be presented to identify if in fact they are related.

SDI Review Form 1.6

	(f) Author may consider extending the time period or increasing the number of countries in the sample to better understand the relationship between the two variables. (g) When citing a reference in the body of the paper, the year of publication can be included in parentheses, for example, Park (2011).
Optional/General comments	Authors can expand the Introduction and Literature Review sections of the paper.
