

Editorial comment:

One suggestion is for the authors to write few more sentences on summary of their conclusion before they bullet point them. They state the following..... in the conclusion and it is not very often we do provide conclusion in that manner. They can still leave the bullet points but they provide a brief paragraph before they state their bullet points.

Author's feedback:

The editorial suggestion was carried out