PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	In a sentence or two, state the research problem after the first sentence in the abstract section. In line 21, write "importance" State the source of the comment in lines 25-27 and also that of line 34. In line 32, give examples of non-farm activities. In line 41 check the word "whiles". The author has to clearly bring out the problem the study intends to solve, the broad objectives and the specific objectives. What is the source of the statement in line 120-121? Remove the word "recently" from line 216. In line 228, change " shine" to "shy". The statement in line 228 that ends with "rather" is incomplete. In line 229, add "status" after "marital". In line 235, write "This finding is in line with a priori expectation" Your recommendations should be properly highlighted. In the first recommendation, who is expected to take the action, who do you refer to as the stake holders and did you refer to this in your discussion? In line 253-255, are non-farm activities provided by governments and non-government organizations for the purpose of boosting agriculture? Which NGO do you have in mind? In your last recommendation, who do you have in mind to do that?	We agree with the reviewer. The corrections have been effected (see manuscript) It is a well-known fact that agricultural production in Africa is facing countless challenges. The statements made in the manuscript concerning these are not base on any body's idea. The corrections have been effected (see manuscript) The corrections have been effected (see manuscript) The corrections have been effected (see manuscript) The corrections have been effected (see manuscript)
