PART 1: Editorial Comment

	Editor's comment	Author's feedback
Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments	The article is well written. The abstract is well explained and the findings were discussed in detail. The two main points that needed to be addressed and corrected are the Objectives of the Study and List of References: • At the end of the Introduction, the last few lines should be listed under this subtitle: Objectives of the study. • Listing numbers inside the text was an old way , and names of authors should be mentioned inside the text instead. • The National Population Commission 2006, is not listed in the List Of References. • The total number of percentages , especially in Table 1 (in Occupation) is not 100.
