PART 2:

FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
The title of the manuscript should be as written above and not as written in author's revised work. The last but one sentence of the abstract, the word 'Trait' should begin with small letter 't'. Line 21 of introduction, reads as 'for producing of' instead of 'for the production of' or 'for producing'. Lines 126-128 sentences in the materials and methods is not clear and should be well reframed. Line 253 of the conclusion which reads; 'which have weighed over than 1000-grains' is not clear. Line 256 of the conclusion should read; such an experiment should be extended in scope to cover other possible aspects; Or further experiments in future should consider other possible aspects not covered in this study. Apart from above observations made, the Author has revised the manuscript as much as required, towards meeting the requisite standard.	All comments are referred to as errors in writing and etc. according to the referee has been corrected .
