The inclusion of table 1 is an improvement. The statistics is however still not included in the table, and only mentioned under the various discussions. Items still lacking from table 1 include: Mortality number of pods per plant Changing the graph types and graphed data in Fig 1 and 2 are both improvements. Lines 100, 106: statistical analysis of data was re-done and correctly described. The inclusion of table 2 is appropriate, and the indicated significant differences allow valuable interpretation of the data. The additions to the Conclusion are an improvement.
