PART 2:

FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
I have made a large number of editorial changes and a few minor comments in an effort to make this manuscript worthy of publication. It does not add a great deal to the literature, but may be helpful as an entry point into the scientific literature for new investigators interested in bioactivity of the two titular plants to insect's pests.	Thank you so much for taking time for making essential corrections in the manuscript. We are grateful. These corrections have been suitably incorporated in the text and shown in yellow.
