Subject: RE: Request for final evaluation of revised manuscript (version 2) number: 2012 BJAST 2205

I have once again examined the manuscript MS: 2012/BJAST/2205. I indeed regret but this manuscript is still deficient. It does not have standard quality enough to be published. Focus and deepness are among its major limitations. Unless it is of pivotal importance to this Journal, I advise against its publication in its present form. After two revision tours it is clear the manuscript will not reach minimum requirement for publication. Therefore this is my final position.
