Compulsory REVISION comments	Managing Editor, I have looked at this manuscript and these are my observations 1. The map showing sampling locations is overcrowded and needs to be less crowded to make the points very clear. 2. Author should check the last word in line 126 to see if anything is missing. 3. There should be a reference for the formula for the calculation of total chlorophyll, lines 127,128 and 129. 4. once these observations are taken care of, I will recommend the manuscript for publication. Thanks
