Subject: Re: Request for final decision for manuscript number 2013_BJEMT_6349

My decision for BJEMT_6349: Accepted (subject to editing improvement)

After carefully reading of the original and revised paper, as well as the review comments and reply to comment, Since I agree this is an interesting issue worth for constant study, as two reviewers stated, and the manuscript has done great amendment in respond to the reviewer's comments by adding new reference and providing sufficient arguments. I believe this manuscript should be published.

However, the reference format should be carefully amended or edited. for example, information on pages(journal article), date of access (online reference) are missing, and some are inconsistent (for example, the use of quotation mark" " for article title)
