PART 2:

FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
The document features some improvement however, the structure should be summarized so that the abstract should be one paragraph and the entire document should have less subtitles; In an article, literature review should be presented in the introduction section summarized so that the author highlights the existing debate and/or knowledge gap he intends to contribute/fill.	Thanks for the valuable comments The structure is changed. Abstract became one paragraph. Number of subtitles is reduced. The Literature review is summarized and integrated in the introduction. Major aim of literature review in this article is to provide an insight on relevant factors that affect farmers' decision to convert. It also provided evidence on the suitability of applied methodology to investigate the factors.
