| Optional/General comments    | This is a well-written paper to explore the competitiveness status of the cotton lint export trade for the selective 12 countries. The methodology and competitiveness index selection is appropriate and the finding and policy suggestion are reasonable. |                                                                                                                                                                                      |
