PART 1: Review Comments

|                                            | Reviewer's comment                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here) |
|--------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Compulsory REVISION comments | The authors presented an interesting article, but her reading questions arise. Are the results obtained by the authors shared around the world, or just to explore the region? Can I rely on the data obtained from banks, since it is known that they may have double-entry bookkeeping? How to collect data? | Results are obtained from the Bankscope Database. They concern the relationship between Banking Market Power and Financial (In) Stability in the MENA region                                |
| Minor REVISION comments      | Author should be streamlined of the article, as after an extensive literature review were followed by the very concise calculations                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Optional/General comments    | Literature review and references are so great that it is possible to write on the basis of their separate review article. Therefore, they must be substantially reduced                                                                                                                                        | Thank you for your comments, references were substantially reduced in the revised version of the article                                                                                    |
