Compulsory REVISION comments	The work is clear and well written accord to the rules to mathematics paper. The paper have quality and precision. The density in infinite compact topological spaces is an important theme to applications in natural behaviour of many process that need correspondences between sets with infinite cardinality and a topology not necessary T_1 without extensions, as in the nature is presented. The authors must to check some errors in the writing. The references must be written adequately with their number of reference.	Thank you for your helpful advices on our paper. We have corrected some mistakes in writing and changed numbers of reference. Thank you once again.
