FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
Even having been asked to revise the abbreviations, I realized that intrapenitoneal (IP) was subsequently introduced to its use. The abbreviation was used in line 98 and the name + abbreviation on line 217. I consider satisfactory the other changes.	The full "intraperitoneal" word was mentioned beside its abbreviation "ip" at line number 75 and then I used ip in all other sites as I mentioned the full word at this line.
