FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
To the submitted and revised article, a continuation of the experiments up to justify action on the morphological process of the studied cells will be interesting. It is understandable that the authors do not have the availability of this equipment to confirm the proposed mechanism of action . However , I suggest seeking collaborations with other researchers to make the relevant work to the scientific community .
