The Authors make all corrections suggested, but the reference style is not appropriate: Reference style References must be listed at the end of the manuscript and numbered in the order that they appear in the text. Every reference referred in the text must also present in the reference list and vice versa. In the text, citations should be indicated by the reference number in brackets [3]. Only published or accepted manuscripts should be included in the reference list. Articles submitted for publication, unpublished findings and personal communications should not be included in the reference list but may be mentioned in the text (e.g., T Nelson, Purdue University, USA, Unpublished results or personal communication). Avoid citing a "personal communication" unless it provides essential information not available from a public source, in which case the name of the person and date of communication should be cited in parentheses in the text. For scientific articles, obtain written permission and confirmation of accuracy from the source of a personal communication. Unpublished result which has been accepted for publication in any journal should be cited as "in press". Journal name abbreviations should be those found in the NCBI databases (Link: http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/nlmcatalog/journals). Note: All SDI journals will follow this new reference style, effective from 09 Oct, 2012...." See complete instructions in http://www.sciencedomain.org/page.php?id=general-guideline-for-authors	References have been corrected using the style on http://www.sciencedomain.org/page.php?id=general-guideline-for-authors New corrections made in blue
