Still needs English editing and references should be Vancouver.	Please note that we have improved how the paper reads. It has been reviewed and corrected by a reviewer with a PhD in English. We have submitted a "marked up" and a "clean" copy so that the editors can see the extensive changes made. We have also decreased some of the word count to keep it under 2000 as per journal guidelines. We have altered the abstract to fit the style of already published papers in International Journal of Tropical disease and Health. References to figure have been added References have been changed to Vancouver style. The accuracy of the reference style was also confirmed by the same reviewer with a PhD in English and by a University librarian. DOI numbers have been included where applicable as per recommendation from website: http://www.sciencedomain.org/page.php?id=general-guideline-for-authors Note: List the first six authors followed by et al. Note: Use of DOI number for the full-text article is encouraged. (if available). Note: Authors are also encouraged to add other database's unique identifier (like PUBMED ID).
