Objectives are not clear. Study design, type, sampling etc .are not mentioned. Inclusion criteria not mentioned. Methodology is not clear.. Sample size is too small...50 samples, 10 of them are blood and urine. What kind of stool? Stool of patients with diarrhea (acute or Chronic)...child or adult.. breast feeding... Ethical consideration are not mentioned. What you did stools of positive cases.. did you contact patients doctor or patients. All of these are missing. This is a case study done in Ahmadu Bello university-Microbiology department.. you cannot generalize the results.... References are not fulfilling journal requirements. It is difficult to understand. You need to revise entire paper. Finally, I strongly advise you to re-write.
