

Special Query to Author:

Thank you for submitting your valuable manuscript number 2013_IRJPAC_8704(Title: The etching rates of the anisotropic wet-chemical etching of silicon in KOH solutions). Our Initial Review and Screening Subcommittee (IRSS) found a similar publication:

Available at (<http://www.doiserbia.nb.rs/img/doi/0367-598X/2010/0367-598X1000008R.pdf>)

As per our strict quality control policy we cannot consider any published paper for our journals (Our General editorial Policy states: Submission of a manuscript clearly indicates that: the study has not been published (partly or as a whole) before or is not under consideration for publication elsewhere (except as an abstract or as part of a published lecture or academic thesis)) (Link: <http://www.sciencedomain.org/page.php?id=sdi-general-editorial-policy>).

Therefore, you are kindly requested to clarify this case at the earliest. Kindly inform us, if you have made any mistake during manuscript submission or not. If you have published this paper as only abstract in any conference, you need to adequately restructure the paper before submitting here to avoid any possible copyright or legal conflict.

You may wish to provide your clarification point by point in tabular format.

If these papers are not same and there is no question of plagiarism you need to certify the same in writing. After your certification other peer review formalities will be started.

Author Reply for Special Query:

Thank you for your Email. Actually, my student submitted the manuscript instead of me. The results of the etching rates are different, but the text is almost the same. He obviously used cut and paste. I apologize for that. If you give me a few days, I could write different text and put different figures in the paper. If not, I am understanding. Again, I apologize for this inconvenience. I had to check the submission.
