Compulsory REVISION comments	It is a good experimental work. Its synthesis is consistent, however I believe in the Materials and Methods section, authors should refer to the experimental design and statistical method used. One more factor i.e. mulch is also included which was common to all the treatments.
Minor REVISION comments	The scientific name of potato is Solanum tuberosum L. Check it.	Scientific name is corrected
Optional/General comments	Check all references appear as in-text citations Please clarify the ethical issues if any	All references are mentioned in text as well No issue
