Minor REVISION comments
Optional/General comments	This manuscript overall view is that it definitely valuable has new information which is not always being published. The title is adequate, motivation is clearly stated and literature survey could be improved. Methods adequately. Literary style – the language is not clear and a linguist should be consulted. Vegetable should be vegetation? – also flora – is it vegetation structure and plant composition? Many examples. Fig 10 – Caractéristic – Characteristic. “vegetation (FRV) was intense – line 172” meaning? Vulnerable – should be vulnerable? – Table II (should it not be table 2 ? : the first table is table 1 - Line 122? Line 94 - This index varies from 0 (1 only species) to ...? Nothing? There is definitely very good information	The document at summer revised like wished it the reviewer. The level of the language was re-examined by a linguist. The corrections mentioned in the text were carried out by taking into account the remarks of the reviewer. All the underlined parts were taken into accounts
