| Compulsory REVISION comments | The work suggested for the expertise, is an original work with excellent presentation of the paper in terms of forma and results. Meanwhile, I presume that the conclusion needs to be developped according to the consistence of the work. | The section is being improved upon as indicated                                                                                                                               |
| Minor REVISION comments      | References need to be rewritten according to the commun methodology.                                                                                                                                                                        | Correction is being effected                                                                                                                                                  |
| Optional/General comments    | The use the the specie Moringa Oleifera for medical and environmental use is not widely used and can be suggested for emeing and poor countries.                                                                                     | Noted                                                                                                                                                                         |
