Subject: RE: Feedback: RE: Request for submission revised paper version 2 manuscript no: 2013/PRRI/3663

Kindly find in the attachment my feedback for the two reviews as well as the paper.

I would like to clarify that I've not done any changes in the paper. Basically, I've defended my work and explained my perspective to the reviewers in this regard, as well as answering their wanderings and queries which were mostly included in the last revised version.

Hopefully this will lead to a positive response from them. As a matter of fact, all reviewers were very strict, so as a result the paper becomes in excellent level, so I am eager to see it published in your journal because of the invaluable efforts and time done by everyone.
