Subject: RE: Request for final decision for manuscript number 2014_PSIJ_9676

I have read the reviewer's comments and the author's responses including the final manuscript. All the referees' substantial revision criteria have been met and two of the three referees have indicated acceptance. The third (FC) still expressed some concerns in his assessment. The response of this referee (FC) seems merely a duplicate of his earlier assessment so does not indicate acceptance.

However, in my view, the essence of FC's remarks concern proofreading and grammatical aspects and the authors did deal with this adequately. The standard of grammar and spelling in the final manuscript dated 9/04 is still not perfect (e.g., "Brag reflectors" on page 1, section 1 should be "Bragg reflectors" – I suggest editorial correction of this) but it is much improved from the original submission.

Therefore my decision is to accept the article in its present form.
