Subject: RE: Request for final decision for manuscript number 2013_PSIJ_7803

I have gone through the revised manuscript and the replies to the reviewer comments. I feel it can now be accepted. I do not know if I can still ask for some clarifications. I like to. The authors have not provided any data supporting their claims on the antimicrobial activity. I would have liked to see it through a picture in addition to the table.

Otherwise the manuscript is fine now.
